LETTER FROM COMMODORE, JAY GILL

Thank you K.C , Jill and the whole crew on Sun Chaser for taking on the cruise captain responsibility on the Avalon cruise. I heard it was a great turn-out.

We are winding down the season and I'd like to encourage our members to attend the last few events of the year ending our cruise season at the Long Beach Yacht Club.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you as Commodore.

Jay Gill

LETTER FROM VICE COMMODORE, JIM MCNAMARA

Ahoy West Coast Yacht Club Members,

A great big THANK YOU to KC and Jill for stepping up and handling the Cruise Captain duties for the Avalon Cruise in September. We had a great turnout with 8 boats arriving by Friday, and Pantera doing a nighttime crossing and arriving on Saturday. Thank you to all who attended and helped out with the many moving pieces: appetizers and drinks, changes of moorings, side ties, ignition switches and dinghy rides.

I found it one of the more interesting Avalon experiences, as it was really crowded and at least one of our members got sent over to Descanso. We arrived on Thursday, and had to move as well. Seems to me that the island has become more crowded over the past few years with boaters and those visiting on the flier...folks are realizing what a wonderful destination it is. There is a neat link on the city of Avalon website which shows in real time the number of moorings available and a webcam pointed right at can #88/136 (www.cityofavalon.com, go to the blue tab on the right "moorings and live cam). You can go there and check how many moorings of various sizes are available. It is a pretty handy tool. While we were in Avalon, the cam was pointed right as Stressless.

October brings the cooler weather and the close to our cruising season. We are scheduled for Long Beach Yacht Club October 14-16. Our cruise captains Steve and Brenda Vandenberg and Mike and Kathy Lindstrom will be sending out info soon. Hope to see you there.

As always, please feel free to reach out to me with any questions, concerns or ideas to improve our club. As Commodore Gill has stressed, this is your club and we can all pitch in to make it better. Thank you for allowing me to serve as Vice Commodore.

Fair winds and Following Seas,

Jim McNamara

Vice Commodore.

CLUB NEWS

Thank you KC and Jill for stepping in and hosting for the Avalon cruise. I know the Latin's are truly grateful. A wonderful time was had by all, starting with cocktails on Sunchaser Friday night. Everyone came and contributed food and stayed late. On Saturday, the morning kicked off with mimosas and mcmuffins on Sunchaser. Many attended and stayed to visit. Some folks played miniature golf, shopped, swam, snorkeled and dove. Saturday night was dinner at Antonios on the patio. Great turnout and a great time. I heard there were a few folks who headed to Galleon for karaoke afterwards. I believe there were 8 boats who made the journey to Avalon.
